

Nathan Aldridge began his cheese career in 2005 as a Cheesemonger in NYC's Murray's Cheese, where he worked for 13 years. Nathan has held many positions in the world of cheese including Cheesemonger, Store Manager, Field Merchandising Specialist, Director of Operations, and VP of National Operations.

He has had a hand in training over 3,000 Cheesemongers throughout his career and is known for his passionate & fun approach to spreading the gospel of cheese.

Now he is the Manager of Education for the Institut Du Fromage, where he teaches classes across the country.

Nathan is dedicated to educating & motivating Cheesemongers, as well as promoting great cheese producers. Nathan is an ACS CCP, an Authorized ACS CCP Instructor, as well as an IDDBA Certified Salumiere.