GETTING TO KNOW JARRETT

Atlanta native Jarrett Holborough has been bartending for just about 6 years. He started off at a couple of casual bars before making his big break with Slater Hospitality at 9 Mile Station, under Randy Hayden. His tenure at 9 Mile Station learning under Hayden began as a barback before he was quickly promoted to bartender. As a bartender Jarrett hit the ground running working tirelessly on improving his knowledge and palate as well as leading the bar team.

In Winter 2018 the Slater team opened 12 Cocktail Bar and Jarrett jumped at the opportunity to join the opening team. During Jarrett's tenure at 12 where he remains today, 12 Cocktail Bar has evolved from a members only Cocktail Club to one of Atlanta's premiere cocktail destinations.

Jarrett focuses on creating balanced drinks that appeal to the masses without cutting corners. As an up and coming historian, Jarrett is known for telling the story behind the cocktail for a full course experience at his bar.
