

Cameron Scott
Regional Sales Director – Eastern US
Cristom Vineyards
Willamette Valley, Oregon

Cameron Scott, a longtime industry veteran and classically trained chef, oversees sales for the Eastern U.S. region for Cristom Vineyards. Over the past 20 years, his experience in all market sales channels has chiseled Cameron into a true champion for Oregon wines. Prior to joining Cristom Vineyards in 2020, Cameron worked for another prominent Willamette Valley producer, as well as for the Kobrand Corporation and Republic National Distributing Co. in South Florida. Earlier in his career, Cameron spent 18 years in culinary roles at Walt Disney World Resorts, followed by executive roles at Levy Restaurants and the Marriott Hotel Company, culminating in opening his own prosperous restaurant. Residing in South Florida with his family, Cameron is active in his community, engages in various culinary ventures, and is an active U.S. Masters swimmer.
