

Dr. Madaiah Revana, Owner of Alexana Winery

Dr. Madaiah Revana has created one of the most unlikely wine stories in the world.

Fifty years ago, Dr. Revana immigrated from a small village in rural southern India to the United States to become a world renown cardiologist, a career he continues today. Over the past 30 years, Dr. Revana simultaneously developed three elite level wineries with seven Estate vineyards in his pursuit of creating a legacy of unique wine growing properties. Each Estate vineyard has been acclaimed in Wine Spectator's "Top 100 Wines of the World." Today Dr. Revana continues pursue his dream of creating some of the world's best wines.
