

Casey Kearney Bio

Casey Kearney is a fresh take on the country music scene. Her personal songs effortlessly convey both the sweetness of a Southern belle and the steel backbone of a strong country woman with a little touch of rock and grit. Her music ranges from slow heartfelt ballads to upbeat crowd favorites and playful melodies. Her sound is a great representation of vibrant women everywhere.

Casey was born and raised in the Florida panhandle, where she still resides with her husband and her 3 children who are currently homeschooled and active in the local junior and high school rodeo circuit.

Music was not something she saw herself pursuing as a young girl. Casey started to discover a passion for singing, songwriting and learning to play instruments while balancing her family life and growing babies. Through time she has grown and developed her unique voice and creative sound to become a mature, natural performer with contagious energy.

Throughout her career, Casey has played events all over the country including stages in Las Vegas for the National Finals Rodeo, the legendary Bluebird Cafe in Nashville, the Celebrity Theater at Dollywood, Blake Shelton's Ole Red Gatlinburg, and many more.

Casey Kearney had the honor of performing our National Anthem and God Bless America for crowds of 40,000 at Truist Park for the Atlanta Braves in the 2021 World Series Championship season.

Casey has shared the bill with acts such as Deana Carter, Drake White, Jason Isbell, Sheryl Crow, Need To Breathe, Grace Potter, Gregg Allman, Tanya Tucker, Justin Moore, Joe Diffie, Brandi Carlile, Susie McEntire, Runaway June and more.

Casey was the founder and president of the non-profit organization "Bands of 30A" which raised over $100,000 for various charities through community concerts featuring local bands.
